

I support strong NET neutrality backed by Title 2 oversight of ISPs.

America was founded on principals of freedom of speech and equality. This technology is essential for the modern existence of these two things.

Without NET neutrality, most of the principals of the country founders will be removed from modern existence.